

Amora

The Biophilic Bridal Villa

Where Nature Hosts Your New Beginning
At Touchwood Bliss, Igatpuri

Once upon a time, a bride stood by her window, not in a palace...
but in the middle of a forest kissed by morning light
She didn't dream of chandeliers or grand ballrooms.
She dreamt of waking up to birdsong, her mehendi still fresh, with her family around and mountains watching over her big day.

At Touchwood Bliss, we turned that dream into reality
Crafted not with concrete, but with care.
Surrounded not by walls, but by Mountains, tall trees, and the soothing scent of nature.

Here, surrounded by nature, family, and quiet joy —
she writes the first lines of her forever story.

A place where every window frames a blessing, every corner holds a prayer, and every heartbeat feels at home.
Because a bride's journey doesn't start at the aisle.

It starts here

Where she's loved, nurtured, and held by nature itself.

Built with Love, Light & Nature

Some villas are built with bricks.

Amora is built with love, light, and nature.

Welcome to Amora

India's 1st & only Biophilic Bridal Villa, Nestled in the serene lap of the Sahyadris
at Touchwood Bliss, Igatpuri.

Crafted for intimate weddings, cherished family time,
and soulful celebrations.

Amora offers more than just a stay.
It offers a memory in the making.

A Space Where Love Finds Its Roots

A modern villa with a swimming pool and a sunset background. The villa is a two-story house with a brown tiled roof and white walls. It has large glass windows and doors. In front of the villa is a swimming pool with a curved edge and a blue tiled border. The pool is surrounded by a green lawn and some potted plants. The sky is a mix of orange and yellow, suggesting a sunset or sunrise. There are some decorative elements like a yellow leaf graphic on the left and a pink leaf graphic on the right.
